

This letter is written in support of XM radio and its continuing ability to broadcast satellite programs without hindrances. My wife and I find XM radio to be pleasant and refreshing to listen to. We are able to choose from a wide range of uninterrupted programming without advertizing.

Please give all the support you can to help it to continue as is.